3.7.2 Allow for comments and objections in writing within 20 (twenty) business days to the proposed amendment to any rule or depository directive;
3.7.3 Consider and respond to any objections made to the proposed amendment to any rule or depository directive;

3.7.4 Timeously publish to Participants and Issuers, the proposed amendment to the rule or depository directive which stipulates the effective date of the amendment of any rule or depository directive.

3.8 The Controlling Body must notify the Participants or Issuers who objected to the proposed amendment, of its decision with regard to the proposal within 30 (thirty) days of the objection being lodged. However, any amendment made to the rules or depository directives by the Controlling Body is not rendered invalid merely by virtue of the fact that any Participant or Issuer did not receive the notification of the Controlling Body’s decision.

3.9 The CSD shall submit any new rule or final amendments to existing rules, to the Registrar for approval and this submission must be accompanied by an explanation of the reasons for the proposed new rule or amendment and any concerns raised during the consultation process.

3.10 Any depository directive made will be binding and enforceable on the parties as listed in section 35(6) of the Act.
CO-OPERATION WITH MARKET INFRASTRUCTURES AND OTHER REGULATED PERSONS

4.1 Where required, the CSD will enter into co-operation agreements with any market infrastructure to further the business of the CSD.

4.2 The CSD shall also enter into co-operation agreements with market infrastructures to further the objects of the Act.
SECTION 5

PARTICIPANTS

5.1 CENTRAL SECURITIES DEPOSITORY PARTICIPATION CRITERIA

5.1.1 The CSD may, subject to 5.1.2 and 5.1.3 below, authorise an applicant that holds securities or an interest in securities, as a Participant in terms of the rules and depository directives.

5.1.2 An application for authorisation as a Participant must be made in the form and manner prescribed by the Controlling Body and rule 5.2.

5.1.3 An applicant must provide the Controlling Body with-

5.1.3.1 a copy of the applicant’s constitutive documents;

5.1.3.2 a breakdown of the applicant’s ownership structure;

5.1.3.3 evidence that the applicant fulfils the financial soundness requirements that are stipulated by depository directive;

5.1.3.4 documentation showing that the applicant has sound administrative and accounting procedures and internal control mechanisms;

5.1.3.5.1 has adequate human resources, operational and technical skills;

5.1.3.5.2 has adequate insurance to cover its liabilities;

5.1.3.5.3 maintains systems, procedures and documentation of all data and information of securities accounts and central securities accounts and protects these against any unauthorised access;

5.1.3.5.4 has implemented, or is to implement, business continuity processes;

5.1.3.5.5 will settle via a settlement bank);

5.1.3.5.6 will appoint a compliance officer, in terms of the rules and depository directives, before commencing business as a Participant;

5.1.3.5.7 has in place a risk and compliance policy to ensure compliance with the rules and depository directives; and

5.1.3.5.8 shall comply with all deliverables stipulated by the Controlling Body including the payment of fees and levies as determined from time to time.

5.1.4 All required information as per 5.1.3 above, must be furnished to the Controlling Body within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by depository directive.
5.1.5 In deciding whether or not to approve a Participant, the Controlling Body will differentiate between Participants that are registered as banks in terms of the Banks Act and those that are not registered as a Bank and may, by depository directive, issue different participation criteria with respect to each.

5.1.6 No Participant may cede, transfer or assign participation, or any rights or obligations in respect thereof.

5.1.7 No person may manage or control a Participant if such person does not meet the fit and proper requirements as set in depository directive;

5.2 APPLICATION PROCEDURE

5.2.1 Applications for authorisation as a Participant shall be made to the Controlling Body of the CSD. The Controlling Body will prescribe the manner of the application and the forms that must be submitted to the Controlling Body as per this rule 5.2 and depository directive.

5.2.2 No application will be considered unless the CSD has received the non-refundable application fee prescribed by depository directive.

5.2.3 In considering the application, the Controlling Body may request any further information and may interview any persons it deems fit, in order to make an informed decision.

5.2.4 The Controlling Body may after examining an applicant’s compliance with the participation criteria and the information submitted in accordance with the rules and depository directive, decide either to authorise the Participant or to reject the application. The Controlling Body must inform an applicant of any rejection and give reasons to the applicant within a reasonable timeframe.

5.2.5 The applicant whose application has been rejected may re-apply as soon as they are satisfied that they have addressed the short-comings of their original application.

5.3 DUTIES OF PARTICIPANTS

5.3.1 A Participant must -

5.3.1.1 perform the securities services which it has been authorised to perform in terms of its application;

5.3.1.2 deposit with the CSD, securities that are deposited with the Participant by a Client, where the Client has instructed the Participant to dematerialise the securities;

5.3.1.13 balance and reconcile the aggregate of the securities accounts with the CSD on a daily basis;

5.3.1.14 balance and reconcile central securities accounts kept at the CSD on behalf of its Clients and its Nominees to the records of the Participant;

5.3.1.15 correct discrepancies which are revealed in the reconciliation of the aggregate of its securities accounts and central securities accounts, administered by the Participant on behalf of its Clients, or by the participant for its own account, held at the CSD, within 2 (two) business days, and the Participant must make good or provide any reconciled shortfall for which there are reasonable grounds for concluding that the Participant is responsible;

5.3.1.16 deposit securities held by it for its own account and those held for or on behalf of its clients in separate securities accounts and must ensure that securities held for or on behalf of its clients are segregated and identifiable as belonging to that specific person;
5.3.1.17 on a daily basis ensure that its securities accounts and central securities accounts do not show a debit balance at close-of-business; and

5.3.1.18 perform securities services to the extent necessary to perform the duties referred to in this rule 5.3 and ensure that securities held by the participant on behalf of another person are identifiable as securities belonging to that specific person and are considered to be trust property as defined in the Financial Institutions Act.

5.3.2 A Participant must, on request, disclose to-

5.3.2.1 the Registrar, information about the securities recorded in a securities account or central securities account;

5.3.2.2 an Issuer, information about the securities issued by that Issuer and recorded in a securities account or central securities account in accordance with the rules;

5.3.3 A Participant may not alienate, invest, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise make use of securities held for or on behalf of its clients except with the Client’s express consent, and must make adequate arrangements for the safeguarding of Clients’ ownership rights, including, but not limited to insolvency proceedings.

5.3.4 A Participant must ensure that-

5.3.4.1 where the Client elects to deposit securities in the name of the Nominee of a Participant, the Client shall be timeously advised of, and shall be in a position to exercise its rights as a member of the Issuer, or legal owner of the securities in the Issuer, as if the Client were the registered member of the Issuer or legal owner of the securities;

5.3.4.2 all interest, dividend, capital redemption payments and all other entitlements received by the Participant from an Issuer of securities, will be paid in accordance with the client mandate, rules and depository directives, to the Client upon receipt in accordance with the Client’s holdings at the date that the entitlement was calculated;

5.3.4.3 all notices, reports and circulars regarding rights and other benefits accruing to the securities which are received by a Participant from the Issuer of securities, except as contemplated in the rules and the depository directive dealing with the processing of corporate actions, are conveyed within a reasonable time to the Client concerned and that the rights of Participants or Clients are not in any way diminished by the fact that securities held by them or on their behalf are held collectively in the CSD;

5.3.4.4 authenticated instructions are sent to the CSD for any settlements, transfers and any other CSD communication matters.

5.3.4.5 any fees or charges be disclosed to Clients and Issuers for its services as per section 32(2)(f) of the Act;
5.3.4.6 statements in respect of securities accounts, central securities accounts or Issuer accounts, are provided to Clients at least bi-annually;

5.3.4.7 all entries in securities accounts or central securities accounts, pursuant to an instruction, are recorded in the statements provided to Clients;

5.3.4.8 clients are advised in writing, within 10 (ten) business days, by the Participant, its trustee, liquidator, curator, judicial manager, administrator or other lawful agent, of any suspension, restriction or termination of its participation. Such advice shall include a reference to the Client’s obligation to advise the Participant, its trustee, liquidator, curator, judicial manager, administrator or other lawful agent to which Participant the Client’s securities shall be transferred within thirty calendar days of the Client receiving such notification, failing which rule 5.6.3.1 would apply; and

5.3.4.9 where a compliance officer post becomes vacant, that a temporary compliance officer be appointed for a period of no longer than 3 (three) months, unless otherwise directed by the Controlling Body.

5.3.5 No Participant may open a securities account or a central securities account for a person for whom a Participant believes or suspects requires approval as a Nominee under section 76 of the Act without having taken reasonable measures to ascertain that such person has the necessary approval.

5.4 ADMINISTRATION AND MAINTENANCE OF INFORMATION

5.4.1 Participants records must at least reflect the following information of transactions in a Client’s securities accounts or central securities accounts-

5.4.1.1 client name;

5.4.1.2 issuer name;

5.4.1.3 description of securities;

5.4.1.4 quantity of securities;

5.4.1.5 pledges and cessions;

5.4.1.6 date of transaction entry; and

5.4.1.7 cash amount to be settled.

5.4.2 Participants must reconcile balances with the CSD on a daily basis. Any differences that cannot be reconciled within 1 (one) business day must immediately be-

5.4.2.1 reported to the CSD; and

5.4.2.2 investigated and corrected by the CSD, or the Participant.
5.4.3 The Participant must ensure the retention of information as per the Act and the rules.

5.4.4 The Participant can store information by any means, including electronically, as long as it is compliant with applicable legislation, so long as it is capable of being reproduced.

5.4.5 All information must be backed-up and documented in a recovery manual.

5.4.6 A Participant must disclose any information to the CSD, which the CSD may reasonably require in order to fulfil its obligations in terms of the Act and the rules.

5.5 CLIENT MANDATE

5.5.1 A Participant, before entering into any business relating to securities services with the CSD on behalf of a Client, must enter into a written mandate with its Client, and ensure that the Client has in place the necessary warranties and indemnities in line with the Act and the rules.

5.5.2 In the instance where a Client is transferring from one Participant to another, the new Participant must ensure that a mandate is in place before commencing any securities services with that Client.

5.5.3 Participants must ensure that all entries are effected on the CSD system when instructed to do so by their client.

5.5.4 Clients may instruct their Participant not to send notices, reports and circulars regarding rights and other benefits accruing to them.

5.6 PARTICIPANT TERMINATION OR SUSPENSION

5.6.1 Involuntary Termination or Suspension

5.6.1.1 The Controlling Body has the right to terminate or suspend a participant from the CSD in the following instances but not limited to the following –

5.6.1.1.1 where the participant fails to comply with the Act, rules, depository directives, or any other applicable law;

5.6.1.1.2 where the participant fails to make full disclosure in its application for participation to the CSD or furnishes any false or misleading information;

5.6.1.1.3 where the participant has any material legal proceedings or legal judgments against it that may impact on the business of the CSD, the participant or the financial market as a whole;

5.6.1.1.4 where the Controlling Body is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the manner in which the participant conducts its business is not in the best interests of the CSD, other participants or Clients of participants, and Issuers;

5.6.1.1.5 where the participant has any insolvency proceedings lodged against it;
5.6.1.1.6 where the participant has lodged an application for voluntary liquidation.

5.6.1.1.7 where the participant has failed to pay any fees and charges as stipulated by the Controlling Body in terms of rule 20.5.

5.6.1.2 The participant, or its trustee, liquidator, curator, judicial manager, administrator or other lawful agent, as the case requires, shall immediately notify the Risk and Compliance Committee, in writing, upon the happening of any of the events referred to in 5.6.1.1.5 or 5.6.1.1.6 and shall, in addition to their obligation to transfer securities accounts and central securities accounts, immediately upon termination ensure that all of its records are placed in custody as determined by the Controlling Body.

5.6.1.3 The Controlling Body has the right to investigate any material complaints against a participant and may take any appropriate action, including but not limited to termination or suspension of participation.

5.6.1.4 The controlling body shall inform the participant if it intends to suspend or terminate its participation, in writing, and give reasons for the suspension or termination, and allow the participant a period of 10 (ten) business days to remedy its non-compliance.

5.6.1.5 The CSD must notify the participant of its termination or suspension, in writing, and give reasons for the participant's termination or suspension and the effective date of such termination or suspension.

5.6.1.6 The CSD must notify the Registrar and other participants of the termination or suspension of a participant and the effective date thereof.

5.6.2 Voluntary Termination

5.6.2.1 A participant may voluntarily terminate its participation by giving the Controlling Body at least 30 (thirty) days written notice of its intention to terminate participation.

5.6.2.2 The Controlling Body may, in its sole discretion unconditionally or provisionally accept such notice of termination. The provisional termination is granted in order to afford the participant time to ensure that all its obligations to Clients, Issuers, other Participants and the CSD have been met and to settle all outstanding transactions. The Controlling Body will determine the period of such provisional termination and may prescribe any conditions that it considers necessary to achieve the termination.

5.6.2.3 The Controlling Body must notify the Registrar and other Participants of the intention of a Participant to voluntarily terminate its participation having received notification to that effect from a Participant and the effective date of termination.

5.6.3 Duties in the event of Participant termination or suspension
5.6.3.1 Upon termination, all the securities accounts and central securities accounts of the Participant, Clients, Issuers and Nominees must be transferred to other Participants as stipulated by the Clients, Issuers or Nominees in the Client mandate or as directed by the Controlling Body. This obligation to transfer the securities shall be binding on any curator, judicial manager or liquidator.

5.6.3.2 Participants shall remain liable for all past and current obligations specifically relating to the business of the CSD.

5.6.3.3 In the event of the Controlling Body terminating or suspending a Participant, all funds shall be deposited in a trust account held by the CSD and distributed as required.

5.6.3.4 A Participant who has been terminated or suspended cannot use the services of the CSD or an approved Nominee.

5.6.3.5 A Participant who has been terminated or suspended must keep records in accordance with rule 16.2.

5.6.3.6 A Participant may not cede or transfer any of its Participant duties or obligations to another Participant or party without the written consent of the Controlling Body.

5.7 FINANCIAL SOUNDNESS

5.7.1 Participants must meet the requirements for financial soundness as per depository directive.

5.7.2 Participants must hold financial cover in respect of:

5.7.2.1 the Participant’s actual and potential liabilities

5.7.2.2 conditional and contingent liabilities associated with its participation to the central securities depository, and

5.7.2.3 liabilities that existed or accrue after a person has ceased to be a Participant.

5.7.3 Participants must have systems in place in order to be able to monitor their financial soundness compliance in terms of the rules and depository directives.
SECTION 6

BOND AND MONEY MARKET SECURITIES

6.1 REGISTRATION OF SECURITIES

6.1.1 Uncertificated securities deposited with the CSD shall be reflected as an entry of securities in the securities account or central securities account of the Participant, Nominee, Client or Issuer.

6.1.2 A Participant can open the following accounts within the CSD-

6.1.2.1 Central Securities Account in the name of a Participant;
6.1.2.2 Central Securities Account in the name of a Client, administered by a Participant;
6.1.2.3 Central Securities Account in the name of any approved Nominee;
6.1.2.4 An Issuer account in the name of an Issuer of securities.

6.1.3 A Client can open a securities account with a Participant.

6.1.4 A Nominee is able to open a securities account with a Participant in which case the Nominee must maintain a sub-register.

6.1.5 A Nominee can request a Participant to open a central securities account at the CSD in the name of a Nominee.

6.1.6 Where a Nominee opens a central securities account, the sub-register of the Nominee clients will be maintained by that nominee to reflect beneficial ownership.

6.1.7 A Participant must ensure that all securities deposited with it by a Client are entered in a securities account or central securities account, opened and maintained by the Participant, in terms of the rules and depository directives and that each Client’s securities are kept separate from those securities held by Participants in their own name.

6.1.8 The Participant is not obliged to accept an application to open a securities account or accept, for dematerialisation, any certificate or document of title by any person.

6.1.9 A Participant may request the CSD to open one or more central securities accounts in the name of the Participant with each account reflecting the number or nominal value of securities of each kind deposited with the CSD by that Participant for its own account and all entries made in such account.

6.1.10 Only eligible securities can be deposited and held in the CSD.

6.1.11 The CSD or its Participants may not become owner, co-owner, holder, pledgee or cessionary for the purpose of securing a debt of securities in terms of section 36(2) of the Act.
6.1.12 Where securities are deposited with the CSD or Participant, or accrue to the owner of securities held collectively by a Participant or Nominee in a securities account or by the CSD, the person who was the owner of the securities at the time of deposit or accrual becomes entitled to an interest as determined by Section 37(2) to 37(4) of the Act, as co-owner of all securities of the same kind comprised in the securities account or the central securities account, maintained by the Participant at the CSD, as the case may be.

6.2 DEMATERIALISATION OF SECURITIES

6.2.1 UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

6.2.1.1 Certificated securities may be converted to uncertificated securities and an Issuer may, subject to the provisions of rule 6.2.1.2, issue uncertificated securities subject to any contrary provision in-

6.2.1.1.1 any other law;
6.2.1.1.2 the common law;
6.2.1.1.3 an agreement;
6.2.1.1.4 the memorandum of incorporation of an Issuer;
6.2.1.1.5 a prospectus; or
6.2.1.1.6 any other conditions applicable to the issuing of Securities.

6.2.1.2 When any new issue of listed securities is made by an Issuer or when an Issuer issues securities in contemplation of the listing of that Issuer’s securities by an exchange, the securities must be issued in uncertificated form.

6.2.1.3 An Issuer and a licensed CSD and its Participants must make arrangements in accordance with the rules for uncertificated securities to be evidenced by way of entry.

6.2.1.4 An Issuer has the same obligations in respect of uncertificated securities as it has in respect of certificated securities except that no certificate or written instrument is issued in respect of uncertificated securities.

6.2.2 DEMATERIALISATION

6.2.2.1 Clients may apply to a Participant for the dematerialisation of securities. The dematerialisation of securities shall take place in accordance with the Act, the Companies Act, where applicable, and in the manner stipulated by the rules.

6.2.2.2 Before accepting such dematerialisation, the Participant must receive from the Client a certificate or document of title and subsequently issue the Client with a receipt recording the name of the securities and the number or nominal value of the securities so received.
6.2.2.3 A Participant must check the certificate or document of title which it has in its possession and determine from the face of it whether the Client is the legal owner of such securities. If the Client is not, on the face of the certificate or document of title, the legal owner of such securities, the Participant may reject the instruction for dematerialisation.

6.2.2.4 Following an acceptance of a Client request for dematerialisation, the Participant must lodge a request to the Issuer for dematerialisation.

6.2.2.5 The Issuer will inform the Participant if the request for dematerialisation has been accepted or rejected.

6.2.2.6 The Issuer must notify the Participant and the CSD of any increase of its dematerialised securities record.

6.2.2.7 Where dematerialisation follows an Initial Public Offering ("IPO") or private placement, the following must take place in addition to rule 6.2.2.1 to 6.2.2.6 above-

6.2.2.7.1 the Issuer must inform the exchange of an increase in issued capital from the IPO or private placement;

6.2.2.7.2 the exchange will notify the CSD and the Issuer of the approval of the IPO or private placement; and

6.2.2.7.3 the Issuer notifies the CSD and any Participants involved, of the IPO or private placement approval.

6.2.2.8 Any instruction by the Client to the Participant or the CSD, as the case may be, to withdraw uncertificated securities, must be effected in the manner stipulated in the Act, Companies Act, rules and depository directive.

6.2.2.9 In the event of a written request by the Client for the withdrawal of uncertificated securities, the Participant will ensure the delivery of a certificate or a written instrument evidencing the same nominal value or number of securities as the securities held on behalf of the Client, in the securities account or central securities account of the Client.

6.2.2.10 Nothing in rule 6.2.2 prejudices any Participant or the CSD’s power to effect a transfer to a person to whom the right to any uncertificated securities or an interest in uncertificated securities has been transmitted by operation of law.

6.2.2.11 The Client will be presented with a certificate, issued by the Issuer, representing the same nominal or number of securities that were reflected in the Client’s securities account or central securities account.
6.3 DEBIT BALANCES

6.3.1 A Participant must not-

6.3.1.1 make any transfer or withdrawal which would result in any of the securities accounts or central securities accounts, maintained by the Participant, reflecting a debit balance;

6.3.1.2 give an instruction to the CSD to effect a transaction which would result in a debit balance in any of the securities accounts or central securities accounts without ensuring that the Client has made provision for all settlements to take place.

6.3.2 In the event that a Participant allows a transfer or withdrawal that results in a debit balance in any securities accounts or central securities accounts, that Participant is responsible for rectifying such debit balance and may be charged by the CSD, with misconduct, and will be subjected to the investigation and disciplinary procedures set out in these rules.

6.3.3 In the instances where a Client requires a facility to be overdrawn in its securities or its central securities account for the sole purpose of settlement, the decision must be made by the Participant, in its discretion, and the Participant will ensure that the Clients debit balance is rectified at the end of the business day.

6.4 OPERATION OF SECURITIES ACCOUNTS AND CENTRAL SECURITIES ACCOUNTS

6.4.1 A Participant may execute an entry in a securities account or central securities account only if it receives an instruction from a Client to do so.

6.4.2 A Participant must keep records of all instructions it receives from Clients and must ensure, at the close of every business day, that the records, as reflected in the securities accounts held by the Participant, correspond with the respective records reflected in the central securities accounts of the Participant and its Clients central securities accounts.

6.4.3 A Participant must, upon receipt of a notification from the CSD advising it of the completion of a transaction which affects the balance of a securities account or central securities account held by the Participant, complete a corresponding entry in the relevant securities account or central securities account in accordance with the Client mandate, the rules, chapter 2 of the Companies Act, where applicable, the Act and other relevant legislation.

6.4.4 A Participant must make an electronic recording of any issuance, deposit, withdrawal, transfer, attachment, pledge, cession in securitatem debiti or other instruction in a securities account or central securities account, in accordance with the provisions of the Client mandate, the Act and the rules.

6.4.5 Where a Participant records a pledge or cession to secure a debt on behalf of a Client in a securities account or central securities account-
6.4.5.1 the requirements of the Act and the rules shall also be applicable to any securities account or central securities account in which the Client securities are held;

6.4.5.2 it must, in accordance with the Act, prevent the securities from being transferred from the securities account or central securities account or the underlying account in which the Client securities are held, except with the written consent of the pledgee or cessionary;

6.4.5.3 it must, in its statements to its Clients, indicate which securities have been pledged or ceded and specify the nominal amount or number of such securities; and

6.4.5.4 it must, when it sends out statements, send to the person to whom the securities are pledged or ceded, a statement evidencing the existence of the pledge or cession to secure a debt.

6.5 OPERATION OF ISSUER ACCOUNTS

6.5.1 Any Issuer may apply through its Participant to open an issuer account in the CSD, for the deposit of its securities.

6.5.2 An Issuer must provide all required documentation to the Participant with the application for an issuer account, as prescribed by the rules and depository directives.

6.5.3 An Issuer may, electronically or in any other manner acceptable to the CSD, deposit securities into its issuer account to be registered in its name.

6.5.4 An Issuer must instruct the Participant to transfer securities from or to its issuer account.

6.5.5 An Issuer may keep unutilised balances in its issuer account.

6.5.6 An Issuer must regularly reconcile its register of securities deposited in the issuer account, to the register maintained by the issuer.

6.5.7 An Issuer must immediately resolve any discrepancies between its issuer account held at the CSD and the register maintained by the issuer of such securities.

6.6 ACCOUNT INFORMATION

6.6.1 Every securities account, central securities account and issuer account must contain the information prescribed by depository directive.

6.6.2 Participants must provide client information to the CSD in the manner and frequency stipulated by depository directive.

6.6.3 The CSD must provide information to the Issuers of securities as required by the Act, Companies Act, any other law, rules and depository directive.
SECTION 7

SETTLEMENT

7.1 MATCHING OF TRANSACTIONS

7.1.1 Any transaction, including repurchase transactions, for settlement must be submitted and matched on the CSD securities settlement system as per depository directive;

7.1.2 The CSD will make available all information on matched transactions to the Client’s Participant for settlement purposes.

7.1.3 The CSD must ensure Issuers, Participants, Clients and Nominees have access to the CSD securities settlement system, to submit their transactions.

7.1.4 Issuers, Clients and Nominees can submit transactions directly onto the CSD securities settlement system or instruct their Participant to submit transactions, on their behalf, onto the CSD securities settlement system.

7.1.5 Issuers, Clients and Nominees may only submit transactions directly onto the CSD securities settlement system on being granted approval by their Participant.

7.1.6 A Participant must inform the CSD of the approval granted in terms of rule 7.1.5.

7.1.7 Any costs associated with connectivity to the CSD securities settlement system by Issuers, Clients or Nominees will be for the account of the connecting party.

7.2 SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS

7.2.1 Clients must instruct Participants directly and in a manner that is acceptable to the Participant, of all transactions, including repurchase transactions, to be settled. The Controlling Body will prescribe by depository directive, the manner in which settlement of transactions in securities deposited with the CSD will take place.

7.2.2 The Participant must commit to transactions on the CSD securities settlement system.

7.2.3 A Participants commitment to settle will become unconditional, as stipulated in depository directive.

7.2.4 A settlement of securities which fails to settle on settlement date is regarded as a failed settlement. Participants must deal with failed settlements in the manner stipulated in depository directive.

7.2.5 A Participant may assist their Client in the process of investigating and claiming for losses and damages incurred as a result of failed settlements.
7.2.6 The CSD will report all failed transactions to the exchange where transactions were executed or reported to.

7.3 GROSS SETTLEMENT

7.3.1 Uncertificated securities transactions reported by a Client or a Participant on behalf of its Client on the CSD securities settlement system, may settle on a gross basis.

7.3.2 Clients may instruct Participants, as per the client mandate, to also settle uncertificated securities on a net basis.

7.3.3 Participants may settle client securities on a net basis as per Depository Directive.

7.4 TRANSFER OF UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

7.4.1 Any instruction to transfer uncertificated securities must be effected in accordance with depository directive.

7.4.2 A Participant may instruct the Central Securities Depository to transfer uncertificated securities between Central Securities Accounts, where a Participant has more than one Central Securities Account, and such transfer will not affect a change in beneficial ownership.

7.4.3 Transfers from a client’s securities account or central securities account may be instructed by the Client in the instances where the Client has:

7.4.3.1 securities accounts or central securities accounts with separate participants; and

7.4.3.2 where the Client is closing its securities accounts or central securities accounts with a Participant and opening securities accounts or central securities accounts with another Participant.

7.4.4 All transfers of uncertificated securities must be reported by the Participant to the CSD securities settlement system.

7.4.5 Issuers may instruct their Participant to transfer uncertificated securities from its issuer account to its securities account or central securities account for the purpose of settlement.

7.4.6 Issuers may instruct the Participant to transfer its own issued uncertificated securities from its Securities Account or Central Securities Account, into its Issuer account, to reduce the nominal or number of securities in issue.

7.4.7 The transfer of uncertificated securities must be evidenced by the processing of debit and credit entries respectively in the securities account, central securities account or Issuer account of the transferor and the transferee, kept by the CSD or the Participant, as the case may be.
7.4.8 The transfer of uncertificated securities or of an interest in uncertificated securities on the uncertificated securities register held by a CSD or Participant must be effected in the manner provided for in chapter 2, Part E of the Companies Act.

7.4.9 Transfers of securities from one CSD to another CSD must be done as per the Act, rules, exchange rules, depository directives and other relevant legislation.

7.5 REVOCATION OF SETTLEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

7.5.1 A Participant or Client may not revoke settlement instructions within 30 (thirty) minutes before a scheduled settlement time in the instances where such transactions have an unconditional commit status.

7.5.2 Any Client may instruct its Participant to revoke settlement instructions, if the Client has been instructed by the relevant exchange, where the exchange is investigating any form of irregularities against the Client or its counterpart, in terms of the Act, exchange rules or depository directive.

7.5.3 The exchange must notify the CSD of the instances where it has issued an instruction for the revocation of Client transactions.

7.5.4 The CSD or the Participant may revoke any transaction in the instance contemplated by section 35A of the Insolvency Act or where they are notified of insolvency proceedings against a Client, except in instances where such notice is provided subsequent to the 30 (thirty) minute scheduled settlement time and the transaction is recognised as having an unconditional commit status as contemplated in rule 7.5.1.
SECTION 8

ISSUERS

8.1 ADMINISTRATION OF ISSUERS

8.1.1 An Issuer may be authorised by the Controlling Body in terms of the Act, rules and depository directive.

8.1.2 The depository directives will stipulate the fees payable and prescribe forms applicable.

8.1.3 An Issuer may only deposit eligible securities with the CSD as per the rules.

8.1.4 The Controlling Body may take any appropriate action against an Issuer who fails to comply with the Act, rules or depository directives, which includes, but is not limited to, sanction or suspension of the Issuer, by the CSD.

8.1.5 The Controlling Body will not take any corrective action without first giving the Issuer appropriate notice and providing the Issuer with an opportunity to make written representations.

8.2 DUTIES OF ISSUERS OF UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

8.2.1 An Issuer of uncertificated securities must-

8.2.1.1 record in its securities register the total number and, where applicable, the nominal value of each kind of uncertificated securities issued by it;

8.2.1.2 maintain separate records for each CSD holding uncertificated securities unless all those securities are held by one CSD;

8.2.1.3 if required by section 36(1) of the Act, record the name of that CSD, or its wholly owned subsidiary, as the registered holder of the uncertificated securities;

8.2.1.4 balance and reconcile with a CSD the total number of the uncertificated securities and, where applicable, the nominal value of each kind of uncertificated securities issued by it and recorded in its securities register-

8.2.1.4.1 if the register has not changed, not less than once every month;

8.2.1.4.2 if the register has changed, on the first business day after such change;

8.2.1.5 where applicable comply with chapter II, part E and F of the Companies Act.
SECTION 9

CORPORATE ACTIONS AND EVENTS

9.1 GENERAL

9.1.1 Any rights and benefits regarding securities or an interest in securities to a legal owner, will be communicated by the listing exchange to the CSD where applicable and in the manner prescribed by the exchange rules.

9.1.2 The CSD will communicate all relevant information received from the listing exchange regarding rights and benefits of securities or interest in securities to the Participants, who will communicate such information to its Clients.

9.1.3 The CSD will communicate all corporate events in:

9.1.3.1 its CSD securities settlement system; and

9.1.3.2 as provided by the Issuers listing documentation, to Issuers and Participants in the frequency prescribed in depository directive.

9.1.4 All coupon payments and maturities must be made by the Issuer to the CSD before or on the payment day as per the Issuers listing documentation and depository directive.

9.1.5 Coupon and maturity payments can be made by the Issuer directly to the Participants and / or to the Clients account as prescribed by the depository directive.

9.1.6 Any Issuer may effect coupon and maturity payments that are payable on a Saturday, should the Saturday not be a public holiday.

9.1.7 Issuers may effect payment of coupon and maturities in relation to the payment conditions specified in their listing documentation.

9.1.8 In the event where an Issuer effects payment on a Saturday, the CSD must be notified of such a decision and the CSD and Participants must process payments on the Saturday for good value to Clients.

9.1.9 Where the payment date of coupon or maturity falls on a weekend or public holiday the Issuer can effect payment as per their listing documentation.

9.2 SPECIAL CORPORATE ACTIONS FOR BONDS

9.2.1 BOND SPLITTING

9.2.1.1 In the event that an Issuer has listed bonds to be split over multiple maturity dates, and where the maturing bonds will be replaced by the newly issued bonds, notice must be given per depository directive.
9.2.2  BOND SWITCHING

9.2.2.1  In the event where an Issuer wants to replace an existing issued bond with another bond issuance, and in so doing, requests an early maturity of the initial bond, such a request and replacement, this must be done in accordance with the Act, rules and depository directive.
SECTION 10

PLEDGE OR CESSION OF UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

10.1 A pledge or cession in securitatem debiti, as constituted by an agreement, in respect of uncertificated securities or an interest in uncertificated securities held by a CSD, Participant, authorised user or Nominee, as the case may be, must be effected by entry in the securities account or central securities account, as the case may be, of-

10.1.1 the pledgor in favour of the pledgee specifying the name of the pledgee, the number or nominal value of the uncertificated securities, the interest in the uncertificated securities pledged and the date of entry; or

10.1.2 the cedent in favour of the cessionary specifying the name of the cessionary, the number or nominal value of the uncertificated securities, the interest in the uncertificated securities ceded and the date of entry, as the case may be.

10.2 Uncertificated securities or an interest in uncertificated securities referred to in rule 6.1.1 may not be transferred or otherwise dealt with, and no instruction by the pledgor or cedent may be given effect to, without the written consent of the pledgee or cessionary;

10.3 The pledgee or cessionary of uncertificated securities or an interest in uncertificated securities referred to in rule 6.1.1 is entitled to all the rights of a pledgee of movable property or cessionary of a right in movable property pledged or ceded to secure a debt.

10.4 A pledge or cession in securitatem debiti effected in accordance with rule 10.1.1 and 10.1.2 is effective against third parties.

10.5 Nothing in this section prejudices any power of a Participant or CSD, as the case may be, to effect a pledge or cession in securitatem debiti to a person to whom the right to any uncertificated securities or an interest in uncertificated securities referred to in rule 6.1.1 has been transmitted by operation of law.

ATTACHMENT

11.1 The attachment of securities or an interest in securities is only complete when-

11.1.1 a written notice of the attachment has been given by the sheriff to the person that holds the securities in a securities account or a central securities account; and

11.1.2 the CSD, Participant, authorised user or Nominee, as the case may be, has made an entry of the attachment on the securities account or central securities account, as the case may be, on behalf of the sheriff.

11.2 A CSD, Participant or authorised user, as the case may be, must ensure that only the securities or interest in securities of the person against whom the warrant of execution was granted, are attached.
SECTION 12

NOMINEES

12.1 A Participant may only open a securities account or central securities account in the name of a Nominee where-

12.1.1 the Nominee has been approved by an exchange in terms of section 76(1)(a) of the Act;

12.1.2 the Nominee has been approved by the CSD in accordance with the rules and depository directives in terms of section 76(1)(b) of the Act;

12.1.3 the Nominee is a foreign Nominee and has satisfied the Participant that it operates within its domestic legal framework with the appropriate regulatory approval required in its home jurisdiction; and 12.1.4 the Nominee has been approved by the Registrar in terms of section 76(3) of the Act.

12.2 The criteria used by the CSD in approving a Nominee must be equivalent to the criteria used by the Registrar in terms of rule 12.1.4.
SECTION 13

<reserved>
SECTION 14

<reserved>
SECTION 15

<reserved>
SECTION 16

RECORDS

16.1 If the records of the CSD are inconsistent with those of a Participant regarding securities deposited by that Participant with the CSD, the records of the CSD are deemed to be correct until the contrary is proved.

16.2 A Participant must keep client information and data for a period of 7 (seven) years.

16.3 A Participant must ensure that client information and data are protected against any form of damage, destruction, unauthorised access, amendment or sabotage, including but not limited to the following:

16.3.1 the full name of the Client;

16.3.2 the name of the Issuer of the securities;

16.3.3 the number or nominal amount of securities settled;

16.3.4 the description of the securities;

16.3.5 the date of settlement; and

16.3.6 the details of any pledge, cession or attachment.
SECTION 17

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

17.1 The CSD and Participants shall keep confidential all information relating to the CSD, a Client, a securities account or a central securities account, unless the -

17.1.1 CSD or Participant is required to disclose the information before any court or by any law;

17.1.2 CSD or Participant has obtained the prior written consent of the owner of the information;

17.1.3 information is publicly available; or

17.1.4 information must be disclosed to the CSD by the Participant or Issuer in terms of the rules and depository directives.

17.2 A Participant which discloses or makes known any confidential information in contravention of this rule 17.1 may be subject to disciplinary action in terms of the rules.

17.3 The CSD may make Issuer information available to a third party with prior approval of that Issuer and in terms of the Act and rules.

17.4 The CSD must have in place clear guidelines for employees regarding the security and confidentiality of confidential information

17.5 The CSD must to the best of its ability, keep confidential information that it has in its possession arising out of either its commercial services or regulatory functions in a manner that does not allow for a conflict of interest to arise.
SECTION 18

RISK MANAGEMENT

18.1 PARTICIPANT COMPLIANCE

18.1.1 A Participant must-

18.1.1.1 adopt and implement policies and procedures for the effective delivery of securities services to the satisfaction of the Controlling Body;

18.1.1.2 have its policies and procedures regarding securities services reviewed, on an annual basis, by its external auditors;

18.1.1.3 submit the external audit findings report issued by the external auditors to the Controlling Body within 60 (sixty) days of the completion of the audit;

18.2.2.6  receive all notices issued, on behalf of the Participant and monitor that they are complied with;

18.2.2.7  monitor that Client mandates are in place.
SECTION 19

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

19.1 In the event of any dispute arising out of the rules between any of the CSD, Participants or Issuers, the parties to the dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute bilaterally, and in the instance where no resolution is reached the aggrieved party must refer the matter, in writing, to the Head of Risk and Compliance.

19.2 The Head of Risk and Compliance must provide the parties to the dispute with a resolution to the dispute according to the rules.

19.3 In the event that the resolution of the dispute is not acceptable, then the matter may be referred to the Controlling Body who may take the appropriate steps, including but not limited to calling a meeting of the respective parties executives.

19.4 In the event that no outcome to the dispute is acceptable, then the aggrieved party may refer the dispute for mediation within 7 (seven) business days after being notified by the controlling body of the failure to resolve the dispute.

19.5 The mediator may be appointed by the parties involved in the dispute, or by the chairman of the controlling body.

19.6 The mediation process must not exceed a period of 20 (twenty) business days.

19.7 In the event that no outcome to the mediation is acceptable then the aggrieved party may refer the dispute to arbitration within 10 (ten) business days from the date of the decision received by the mediator.

19.8 The arbitrator must be appointed by the Chairperson of the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa (AFSA).

19.9 The arbitrator must make decisions around the costs of arbitration in a just manner.

19.10 The arbitrator’s decision shall be final and binding and can be made an order of court.

19.11 Complaints

19.11.1 Complaints against Participants

19.11.1.1 Any person may submit a complaint in writing against a Participant, officer or employee of a Participant to the Head of Risk and Compliance of the CSD.

19.11.1.2 The Head of Risk and Compliance must notify the participant, in writing, of a complaint made against it and the participant must respond, in writing, to the complaint within 10 (ten) business days of receiving such notification.
19.11.1.3 The Head of Risk and Compliance shall investigate all complaints received as per rule 19.11.1.1

19.11.1.4 The Head of Risk and Compliance must ensure that all complaints are resolved and responded to the complainant within 60 (sixty) days after the complaint has been received. Complaints that cannot be resolved within 60 days must be communicated to the complainant with regular updates regarding the progress of the investigation.

19.11.1.5 Complaints that have been fully resolved must be communicated to the complainant in writing by the Head of Risk and Compliance.

19.11.1.6 The Head of Risk and Compliance must submit a monthly report to the Controlling Body regarding any complaints submitted against Participants and the status of the investigations.

19.11.2 Complaints against the CSD

19.11.2.1 A Participant may submit a complaint in writing against the CSD in respect of the exercise of functions by the CSD, to the Head of Risk and Compliance.

19.11.2.2 The Head of Risk and Compliance shall investigate the complaints received as per Rule 19.11.2.1, and will also report the complaints to the Controlling Body of the CSD.

19.11.2.3 The Controlling Body may decide to appoint a committee to assist the Head of Risk and Compliance with the investigation of any complaint against the CSD by a Participant.

19.11.2.4 The Head of Risk and Compliance must ensure that all complaints submitted as per Rule 19.11.2.1 are resolved and responded to the complainant within 60 (sixty) days after the complaint has been received. Complaints that cannot be resolved within 60 days must be communicated to the complainant with regular updates regarding the progress of the investigation.

19.11.2.5 A Participant that is not satisfied with the decision of the CSD regarding any complaints submitted against the CSD, may refer the matter to the Registrar.

19.11.2.6 Where a participant believes a potential or actual conflict of interest exists, the participant may report such potential or actual conflict of interest in writing to the Controlling Body and the Controlling Body must then act in accordance with rule 2.5.2.
SECTION 20

FEES AND CHARGES

20.1 The Controlling Body may from time to time determine fees and charges to be paid by Participants, Issuers and other persons as stipulated by depository directive.

20.2 The Controlling Body must, within 60 (sixty) days, prior to the imposition of fees or charges, notify Participants, Issuers and other persons of the applicable fees and charges.

20.3 Fees and charges shall be due and payable within 30 (thirty) days after date of invoice.

20.4 The Controlling Body may charge interest on outstanding fees and charges, which interest shall be calculated on the expiry of the period referred to in rule 20.3. The rate of interest charged shall be the prime lending rate offered by the CSD’s principal bank.

20.5 If the arrears are not paid by the Participant, Issuer or other persons within 14 (fourteen) days of the expiry of the period referred to in rule 20.3, or any extended period granted by the Controlling Body, the Controlling Body may suspend or terminate participation of the Participant, the provision of services by the CSD to the Issuer or other person, or take any other action deemed appropriate by the Controlling Body.
SECTION 21

REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

21.1 SURVEILLANCE

21.1.1 The surveillance division will monitor compliance of Participants and Issuers to ensure that Participants, Issuers, and any officers, employees, or agents of Participants/Issuers comply with the Act, rules and depository directives.

21.1.2 In order to perform its surveillance function the surveillance division has the right to obtain any information, documents and records from any relevant stakeholder subject to any confidentiality laws affecting such party.

21.1.3 The surveillance department will be entitled to make on-site inspections of any documents, work stations, data systems, communications, security arrangement and any other information relating to the CSD business of the Participant, Issuer, any officer, employee or agent of Participants or Issuers and must notify the Registrar if it discovers that any party is in violation of the Act.

21.1.4 Where appropriate and with due notice, the surveillance department may request any representative of any Participant or Issuer, and any officer, employee or agent of a Participant or Issuer, to appear before the surveillance department to answer questions.

21.1.5 The surveillance division must at all times keep any information it has in its possession confidential so as to prevent any conflict of interest arising out of the performance of its regulatory function and the CSD’s commercial services.

21.1.6 The surveillance department may refer any potential breach of the rules or depository directives to the Controlling Body for consideration.

21.1.7 The Controlling Body having reviewed the evidence provided to it of any potential breach of the rules and depository directives may refer the matter to the disciplinary committee for further consideration in order to enforce compliance with the rules and depository directives.

21.2 INVESTIGATION

21.2.1 The Risk and Compliance division or any other person appointed by the Controlling Body may investigate any CSD related activities by the entities and persons as per rule 21.1.1.

21.2.2 The Controlling Body may, in its discretion, refer any matter to any authority should it be deemed necessary.
21.2.3 Any evidentiary item obtained through the process of investigation in any disciplinary action against any entity or person as set out in rule 21.1.1. can be used in any disciplinary matter or possible contravention of law that concerns the business of the CSD.

21.3 THE DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

21.3.1 Any disciplinary committee will be a committee appointed by the Controlling Body as per rule 2.3.2.4.

21.3.2 The disciplinary committee will comprise of at least four persons including-

21.3.2.1 the Head of Risk and Compliance or their chosen nominee or any other employee of the CSD with a law degree and relevant experience;

21.3.2.2 any practising attorney or advocate with not less than five years legal experience, acting as chairperson;

21.3.2.3 at least one other professional person appointed by reason of that person’s financial services knowledge as it relates to the matters under consideration; and

21.3.2.4 a person appointed by reason of his practical knowledge in the business of the CSD.

21.3.3 In the instance that the decision of the disciplinary committee is not abided by, the Controlling Body may-

21.3.3.1 recover any fine imposed by the disciplinary committee in a court of competent jurisdiction; and

21.3.3.2 recommend the termination of the participation of the Participant or Issuer or suspend the provision of further services by the CSD to the Participant or Issuer (on such conditions as the Controlling Body may deem fit) or in the case of an officer or employee of a Participant, require such Participant or Issuer to hold a disciplinary enquiry to consider what the appropriate action is that should be taken.

21.3.4 The Controlling Body will, by depository directive, determine-

21.3.4.1 the disciplinary procedures to be followed by the disciplinary committee;

21.3.4.2 the manner in which its decisions will be notified to affected parties;

21.3.4.3 the number of days that the persons and entities listed under section 35(6) of the Act are afforded to comply with a requirement of a fine imposed by the Controlling Body;

21.3.4.4 any other matters relevant to the enforcement of the rules.

21.3.5 The disciplinary committee may recommend to the Controlling Body, the imposition of any one of the following penalties for any contravention of the rules or failure to comply therewith-

21.3.5.1 a reprimand;

21.3.5.2 a censure;
21.3.5.3 a fine not exceeding R 7.5 million, to be adjusted by the Registrar annually to reflect the Consumer Price Index, as published by Statistics South Africa; a suspension or cancellation of the right to be a Participant;

21.3.5.4 disqualification, in the case of a natural person, from holding office of a director or officer of a Participant, as the case may be, for any period of time;

21.3.5.5 a restriction on the manner in which a Participant may conduct business or may utilise an officer, employee or agent;

21.3.5.6 suspension or cancellation of the Participant to perform a function in terms of the rules;

21.3.5.7 any other penalty that is appropriate in the circumstances.

21.3.6 Any fine and costs paid to the CSD pursuant to an award made in terms of the rules shall be used to further the regulatory and supervisory objectives of the CSD in terms of the Act.

21.4 DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

21.4.1 Any complaints or disciplinary matters must be brought to the attention of the Head of Risk and Compliance.

21.4.2 If during the course of an investigation, the Head of Risk and Compliance is satisfied on the basis of information given that there are grounds for an allegation of improper conduct, they may-

21.4.2.1 institute a formal charge against such person setting out a brief statement of facts constituting the alleged offence; and

21.4.2.2 refer the charge to the disciplinary committee in terms of the rules.

21.4.3 The Head of Risk and Compliance may refer any matter to the Controlling Body who may refer the matter to the disciplinary committee. Where the Head of Risk and Compliance is of the view that the matter should not be referred to the Controlling Body, any party affected by the alleged offense may bring the matter to the Controlling Body in the best interest of the CSD and the financial market as a whole.

21.4.4 If the respondent to the charge does not tender an admission of guilt he must file a defence within 10 (ten) business days from the date of his receipt of the formal charge.

21.4.5 The disciplinary committee will determine the date and time on which the matter will be heard, which date shall not be more than 20 (twenty) business days from the date on which the respondent files his defence.
SECTION 22

RIGHT OF APPEAL

22.1 A person aggrieved by the decision of-

22.1.1 the CSD to refuse an application by a person to be accepted as a Participant;

22.1.2 the CSD to terminate the participation of a Participant, or to direct a Participant to terminate the access to the CSD by an officer or employee of a Participant;

22.1.3 the CSD to impose a penalty on an Issuer or Participant, or an officer or employee of an Issuer or Participant;

may appeal to the appeal board on the conditions determined by or under section 26 of the Financial Services Board Act, subject to section 105(1) of the Act.
SECTION 23

INSOLVENCY

23.1 In the instances where insolvency proceedings are initiated against a Participant, that Participant must-

23.1.1 immediately inform the Controlling Body of the CSD of such proceedings;

23.1.2 make arrangements to transfer all securities accounts it holds and central securities accounts it administers, to the CSD, or transfer all such securities to another Participant if so indicated in the Client mandate; make full disclosure as to the nature and details of all such securities, including who the legal owners are, to the CSD or other Participant, as per depository directive;

23.1.3 the CSD must ensure that in the event of insolvency the dividends and maturities due to the Participant and its Clients will be deposited into a separate trust account administered by the CSD and distributed when required;

23.2 The CSD must ensure that where there is a shortfall in any securities accounts and / or central securities account that have been transferred to the CSD, that such securities are distributed between the legal owners on an equitable basis as determined by the Controlling Body.

23.3 Where insolvency proceedings are instituted against a Client, the CSD or a Participant may terminate any pending transactions.
SECTION 24

NOTICES

24.1 A Participant or other person utilising the services of the CSD, where applicable, shall notify the Controlling Body of a physical address, an electronic mail address, a facsimile address and a secured securities delivery mechanism address at which such Participant or other person shall accept the delivery of all notices distributed by the CSD in terms of the rules.

24.2 The Controlling Body shall notify Participants or other persons utilising the services of the CSD, where applicable, of a physical address, an electronic mail address, a facsimile address and a secured securities delivery mechanism address at which the CSD shall accept the delivery of all notices from such Participants or other persons utilising the services of the CSD.

24.3 Any notice in terms of the rules shall be in writing, and may be delivered by means of a secured securities delivery mechanism and where this is not possible, by means of electronic mail, facsimile, by hand, or by registered post, provided that where a Participant sends a notice in terms of the rules to its Clients, it may do so by means of normal post.

24.4 Any notice delivered by hand before 15h00 on a business day at the nominated physical address shall be deemed, until the contrary is proved, to have been received on the date of delivery.

24.5 Any notice transmitted by a secured securities delivery mechanism, electronic mail or by facsimile before 15h00 on a business day or such other time agreed upon between the CSD and a Participant, Issuer or any other party shall be deemed, if a confirmation receipt is received, to have been received on the date of confirmation of the transmission, unless an error report is received.

24.6 Any notice delivered by registered post shall be deemed, until the contrary is proved, to have been received within seven business days after being dispatched.
SECTION 25

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, WARRANTIES AND INDEMNITIES

25.1 The CSD will not be held liable for any losses or damages that result from an act of Force Majeure;

25.2 Any loss or damage sustained by any person as a result of an action performed by the Controlling Body or an employee of the CSD or a Participant in the execution of their duties and functions as stipulated in the Act, these rules and the depository directives cannot attract liability towards those persons or the CSD and indemnify the CSD and its employees from any such loss and damages.

25.3 The CSD shall obtain adequate insurance cover or guarantees to ensure that it is able to meet any potential claim arising against the CSD.

25.4 The CSD, any director, executive officer, officer, employee or representative of the CSD, or the Controlling Body or a committee of the Controlling Body is not liable for any loss sustained by or damage caused to any person as a result of anything done or omitted by-

25.4.1 the CSD, a director, executive officer, officer, employee or representative of the CSD, Controlling Body or any committee of the Controlling Body; or 25.4.2 a Participant in the bona fide or negligent performance of any function under or in terms of the Act, the rules or depository directives of the CSD.

25.5 The CSD shall by means of insurance or by any other means acceptable to the Registrar place itself in a position to meet any claim for damages against it or its wholly owned subsidiary by any Participant, or a Client or any Nominee for any loss or damage sustained by such a Participant, Client or Nominee as a result of any claim arising in terms of the Act or the rules.

25.6 In addition to the statutory warranties and indemnities provided for in Section 55 of the Companies Act, and the Act, every Participant, Issuer of securities and Client shall be deemed to have indemnified the CSD, its directors, officers, employees or agents against any loss, legal costs, damage or liability suffered or incurred by the CSD, as a result of any grossly negligent or wilful act or omission, on the part of such Participant, Issuer of securities or Client, as the case may be, or any of their officers, employees or agents.

25.7 Each Participant, Issuer of securities and Client shall be deemed to have waived any claim that it may have against the CSD, its directors, executive officer, officers, employees or representatives resulting from any negligent performance or failure to perform by the CSD, its directors, executive officer, officers, employees or representatives of any function under or in terms of the Act, the rules or depository directive.
SECTION 26

APPLICABLE LAWS AND JURISDICTION

26.1 The rules shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

26.2 All parties submit to the jurisdiction of the High Court of South Africa.
